“Tis the season to be jolly” and that is exactly what we did at our December Christmas lunch at Philip and Anne Atkinson’s home yesterday. Anne prepared a fabulous meal for us. Chicken Tetrazzini, Olive Garden Italian Green Salad and their delicious bread sticks and desserts that made you weak in the knees! Needless to say the meal was scrumptious and the ambiance invited everyone to get into the Christmas Spirit. We all enjoyed ourselves and no one left hungry. Our heartfelt thanks to Anne and Philip for graciously opening your home to us and all the hard work you went to putting together this extraordinary Christmas lunch! Below are photos of the food and the event! Enjoy!

We had two out of town classmates with us today. Rhonda Holland Hooks and Kathy Granger. I want you both to know how much we appreciated your effort to drive to Dothan from Birmingham to be with us today. A heartfelt thank you to both of you for joining us today!

Once again, I will remind everyone. If you have never been to one of the lunches, you should try and come sometime. We always have a good time, good food, warm, loving fellowship with each other and last but not least, lots of laughs! Try it sometime, you may just like it. This document will be posted to our website <http://www.dothanhigh1970.com> in the Photo Albums section. Please visit the website from time to time and check out the message board for information about what is going on with fellow classmates. Please remember to keep your classmate profile up to date with your current address, phone and email information. If you are not getting the lunch notifications or the photos delivered to your email and would like to receive them, please contact me at ddb@lgbconsulting.com

Wishing each and every one a very happy holiday season and a beautiful
New Year in 2014!
