

Mrs. Whiddon was born September 27, 1921, in Jacksonville, GA, and lived most of her life in Dothan. She was married to the late Charles Whiddon for 57 years and was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Grace enjoyed playing bridge, watching Auburn football, and following the Atlanta Braves for over 30 years. She was always giving of herself and her time, whether it was babysitting for her granddaughter or taking food to friends and relatives during difficult times. Mrs. Whiddon was a member of First Christian Church, a church which supported her during the past 6 years of her illness when she could not attend services. A special thank you to the church family who brought her communion each Sunday. She loved her church and was a member for over 60 years.

Mrs. Whiddon was preceded in death by her parents, Joe and Frankie Veazey, her husband, Charles Whiddon, two sisters, Sarah Lynn Parker (Jack), Alta Hynson (Ralph), a brother, Joe Grady Veazey (Wanda), and a sister-in-law, Audrey Damian Veazey.

Survivors include her son and daughter-in-law, Bob and Cindy Whiddon, her brother, James A. Veazey, her granddaughter, Brooke Whiddon, all of Dothan, her sister-in-law, Jane Harrison (Doug) of Montgomery, and several very special nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the Westside Terrace staff for their loving care during the past year and to the Covenant Hospice employees for their support and comfort during this difficult time.

In Loving Memory
 Of

Grace Veazey Whiddon

September 27, 1921
 May 12, 2011

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul:
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the Shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
 For thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
 Thou annointest my head with oil;
 My cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.
